Measuring Growth: Does One Size Fit All?

For 2010 the focus of the annual conference is on measuring growth. How much growth should we expect from our students? Should student growth be integrated in teacher and administrator evaluations? Who is responsible for student growth?

Highlights

- Keynote speaker, Dr. Robert Meyer, Senior Scientist, Wisconsin Center for Education Reform (WCER) and the Director of the Value-Added Research Center (VARC).
- Panel on Teacher evaluation: How does student achievement data fit?
- Presentations about measuring and utilizing data on student growth, teacher growth, and school leader growth.
